

Special Offer

Summer is here at last, but no other season is as damaging to your hair; UV rays, summer heat and adverse humidity all affect its natural healthiness. Swimming introduces either chlorine or salt, which can further damage your hair. To combat this, extra care is essential. Nothing is more effective than the Schwarzkopf Bonacure Sun Care Range. Only £19.95 for Sun Guardian Shampoo and Bodywash, Sun Guardian Conditioner with UV filters and Sun Guardian Conditioning Treatment with a free fashionable gold travel bag. As with all our Schwarzkopf specials they are great value and we have limited stock. Last year we sold out, so order yours now to make sure you aren't disappointed.

Partners hairdressing

Visit to the House of Lords

Terry attended the House of Lords at the invitation of David Lammy MP, Minister for Skills on Wednesday 7th May when she joined Ministers, Lords, MPs, other employers and 30 award winning apprentices at a celebratory reception. The event, held on the House of Lords Terrace, highlighted the importance of Apprenticeships and encouraged MPs and employers to support the National Apprenticeship scheme. Speakers included David Lammy MP (Minister for Skills), Baroness (Estelle) Morris and Michael Martin MP (an ex apprentice and the Speaker of the House of Commons ).

Terry on the House of Lords Terrace with the Minister for Skills, David Lammy MP.

It would be safe to say that Terry wasn't overawed by the occasion, happily giving her advice and opinions to apprentices and MP's alike in her own unique style.

Terry has always been committed to the Apprenticeship programme and as an ex South Tyneside College Apprentice of the Year, a qualified NVQ Hairdressing Teacher and Assessor she knows how important it is to support staff development. That's why Terry offers promotional rates and she is grateful to all those customers who give their support every time they book with our current apprentice stylists Katie and Natalie.

It's official—Hairdressers are the happiest!

Hairdressers are undoubtedly the UK's happiest profession, ranking in the top two positions in every annual survey - except 2006 when they were usurped by DJs!

Happiness is making other people look good, according to the latest research which found beauty therapists and hairdressers are the most contented workers in Britain.

A survey of 1,000 adults in 20 professions by City & Guilds found that builders and construction workers were the least satisfied with their jobs.

The 2008 'Happiness Index' also suggested that financial rewards are not the key to job satisfaction.

Instead, working in a hands on career, having an interest in what you do for a living, a good work-life balance and friendly colleagues are much more important.

Along with feeling appreciated at work they have been the key drivers for workplace contentment since the survey was first taken in 2004.

So thank you for choosing us to help make you look good—it makes us very happy!

Girls allowed out...

There can be no doubt that the girls in the Salon have got chemistry. After everyone enjoyed a meal at Romano's, three of the usual suspects went on to paint the town red (can you guess who they were?). Here's a clue: being on crutches couldn't stop one of them from jumping to the sound of the underground until 3am at Dusk in South Shields. Not a bad effort, but someone managed to put in a proper shift and kept going till 4.00! (No prizes for guessing who that was.)

Barbara, Terry, Christie, Katie and Natalie enjoying a night out together

Latest News

Congratulations to Christie's mam Alison, Head Cook at Cleadon Primary, whose team has just been shortlisted for the Local Authority Caterers Association (LACA) Primary School Catering Team of the Year Award.

The winning team chosen from the three shortlisted finalists will be crowned at the LACA conference gala dinner at the Hilton Birmingham Metropole on Thursday 10 July 2008.

Feeling Peckish?

Just ask a member of staff to get you a sandwich or treat yourself to a cake, freshly prepared from Cleadon Deli and enjoy with a free Traidcraft fair trade tea or coffee.

Terry's latest X-ray (number 100 and something) has shown that her leg is healing well and her Consultant has given the all clear to make her long awaited return to work! Soon she will be in the Salon every Tuesday and Wednesday morning and all day Friday. She will also be in on at least one Saturday a month and she's taking bookings now.

Hair trends are forever evolving. Fashion doesn't stand still and to stay at the leading edge top Salon's need to invest in continuous training and development

Unfortunately, due to rising costs we will no longer be having Senior Citizens days. However we have made sure that you still have the choice as the same rates are now available every day with junior stylists Katie and Natalie. Katie finishes college in July and Natalie will be going into her final year and both are steadily building their own columns of regular bookings.

Following on from training at the Rainbow International Academy in Glasgow and at Durham New College, Barbara and Christie have recently been on a Latest Trends Cutting Course in Sunderland.

Why not book an appointment and let them advise you on which of the latest styles will suit you best?

GHD have launched the Limited Edition Dark and Pure stylers. These GHD straighteners come in a completely alluring black or an honest, pure white. These White or Black straighteners are very limited in number, so make sure you avoid missing out.

